THURSDAY THE BIGGEST DAY OF THE REVIVAL

Over 500 People in Attendance at All Services—Twenty-five at 6 A. M. Prayer Meeting

Over 500 people attended all the services Thursday. There were as many as twenty-five in attendance at the first prayer meeting at 6 a. m. The attendance increased at every one of the services throughout the day.

About 100 lunched in the basement of the church at noon. Most of the business places closed from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. and the house was well filled for the 2:30 services, when Evangelist Gray spoke on "The Foundation."

At 4 p. m. nearly 100 of the school boys and girls assembled in the church and after some live songs, they learned a yell, namely "Say, my chum, have you seen second Timothy 2-15, first Thesalonians 5-22, tells you exactly what to do."

The evangelist gave a splendid talk on "Habit," demonstrating the power of it by tying one of the boys with sewing thread until he was unable to break loose.

A large crowd attended the evening service and the subject of the sermon was "Out-and-Outers and In-betweeners." It was a great meeting. The revival continues over Sunday evening.

No offerings have been taken for two weeks, and a collection will be taken Sunday morning and evening for the evangelist.

The evangelist goes from here to Gordon, Neb., to begin a campaign March 18. We prophesy a great meeting there.

The spirit of co-operation during the Hemingford meetings has been excellent and much benefit was received by all who attended.

DE KOVEN OPERA

INTERESTS MANY

The coming of "Robin Hood" is proving an interesting topic, refuting as it does the idea that in order to hear a really worth-while musical production, one must go to a big city.

Ralph Dunbar, whose advance into prominence among producers has been rapid, in noting this situation, concluded that if the millions in the smaller cities were accorded a square deal in the production of real comic opera with the same standards of uprightness prevailing that govern legitimate merchandising, a relationship of confidence would result which would make possible the bringing to those cities of productions fully equal to the best offered anywhere.

To test his judgment, he invested a large sum in a complete new production of Robin Hood, and with the cooperation of Reginald DeKoven and payment to the latter of a heavy royalty, he organized his great company. The plans matured before Mr. DeKoven's death are being carried out as arranged.

Since then more than two hundred cities have enjoyed real comic opera. Such a production is musical entertainment at its best. It does not depend on half clad "girls" nor salacious dialogue for its hit or its crowd. It attracts real folks and gives them an evening of genuine delight.

Several Things To Think About

In selecting a bank you should consider: Its financial strength; the care with which it is managed; the courtesy and spirit of accommodation displayed by the officers and employees; the banking experience of its officers; the ability of the bank to properly and promptly handle all your business.

We will soon be in our new building which will give Hemingford depositors all the conveniences of a modern banking house.
